Adrianople, Jan. 19. N. S.

SIR Robert Sutton, Ambaſſador from His Majeſty of Great Britain, made his Publick Entry here the 28th paſt, being met half a League out of Town by the Chiaux Baſſa, who with 40 other Chiauxes all in their Turbans of Ceremony, and about 500 Janizaries, conducted him through the Town to his Quarters; His Excellency was attended by 9 Engliſh Gentlemen, beſides his own Officers, Pages, and 20 Footmen in Liveries, and in few days his Excellency will have Audience of the Grand Signior. The Lord Paget arrived here the 13th from Conſtantinople, and is upon his return to England.

Naples, January 31. The Four French Frigats which were left on this Coaſt by the Count d'Eſtrees, put to Sea four days ago in order to return to Toulon. Our Viceroy has diſpatched Orders for the fortifying our Frontier Towns on the ſide of the Province of Abruzzo, and for building ſome Redoubts along the Rivers Uberata and Tronto, which divide the Territories of this Kingdom from thoſe of the Eccleſiaſtical State

Cremona, Febr. 7. The Marquis of Crequi arrived here yeſterday with 18 Battalions of French Foot, and 12 Squadrons of Horſe, which were quartered in the Lower Cremoneſe between the Oglio and the Po, having quitted all their Poſts on that ſide except Sabionetta, where they have a Gariſon of 4 Battalions of Foot. The Sieurs St. Fremont and Albergotti are come hither from Milan, and Prince Vaudemont is expected in a day or two. We have an Account, that Prince Thomas of Vaudemont, as he was returning to his Quarters with the Body of Horſe and Foot under his Command from the neighbourhood of this Place, took Buſſeto, a fortified Town in the Dutchy of Piacentia, in which was a Gariſon of 200 French and Iriſh Soldiers, who were all made Priſoners.

Venice, Febr. 10. By all the Letters we receive from Cremona, it appears, that the French in the late Action there had above 2000 Men killed, and 100 Officers and 400 Soldiers taken Priſoners: Of the Germans not more than 250 were killed, and about 150 taken Priſoners; who having diſperſed themſelves in the Town, were left behind when Prince Eugene marched away. Upon the News of this Attempt, the Marquis of Crequi, who commanded the French Forces in the Lower Cremoneſe, drew them together with great Precipitation to ſuccour Cremona, and to that end quitted Bozolo, a Caſtle of good Strength, Gazolo, which Place they had fortified, Torre-d'Oglio, where they had likewiſe made ſeveral new Works, the Caſtle of St. Martin, and of all the other Places they were poſſeſſed of along the River Oglio; as likewiſe Caſal-Maggiore, Uſtiano, and ſome other Poſts on the Po, leaving behind them all their Magazines of Proviſions and Ammunition; And the Germans took Poſſeſſion of theſe Places. Letters come in this day ſay, a conſiderable Body of Germans are in motion upon ſome further Deſign, and ſeem to direct their March towards Picighittone on the River Adda. The City of Mantua, and the Fortreſs of Goito, the only Places the French are Maſters of in the Mantuan, continue very cloſely blocked up, and 'tis believed they will in a ſhort time be reduced by Famine, not having the leaſt Proſpect of being relieved.

Inſpruck, Febr. 14. Marſhal Villeroy, who was taken Priſoner in the late Action at Cremona, is expected here this evening; He is to be conducted to Vienna, and from thence, as 'tis ſaid, will be removed to Lintz or Prague. Letters from Italy ſay, the late Action at Cremona has put the Affairs of the French in that Country into great Diſorder, and has obliged them to draw their Forces together, and in order thereunto to quit ſeveral conſiderable Poſts along the Rivers Po and Oglio, into which the Germans have put Gariſons.

Dreſden, Febr. 14. An Expreſs arrived here this day from Warſaw, with an Account, that the General Diet of Poland was broke up the 7th Inſtant, which was occaſioned by the Sieur Patz, one of the Deputies, (formerly Envoy from the laſt King of Poland at the Court of Sweden) who proteſted againſt their Proceedings, and departed out of the Aſſembly. In the mean time the King of Sweden is marching with his Army towards Warſaw; and 'tis ſaid, the King of Poland having no Forces there to oppoſe him, intends to retire to Cracow, and that Orders will be given to the Saxon Forces quartered in theſe Parts forthwith to march thither. The States of Saxony, which met in this City, ſeparated the 9th Inſtant, having granted the King of Poland a Subſidy of 600000 Dollars.

Frankfort,

Francfort, Febr. 19. Count Lewenſtein, the Emperor's Envoy, went this week from hence to Ulm to be preſent at the opening of the Diet of the Circle of Swabia, which is to begin this day; And the Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine are to meet here to morrow, in order to take the neceſſary Reſolutions in relation to the Conjunction of their Forces with thoſe of other Princes and States of the Empire which are to act on the Upper Rhine. Several Companies of Foot of the Elector Palatine's Forces which lay near Spire, are marched to Germerſheim to ſtrengthen the Gariſon, and 400 Pioneers are come thither from the neighbouring Villages, who, together with part of the Gariſon, are conſtantly employed in fortifying that Place, and more Forces and Pioneers are ſhortly expected there. The French, ſince the Emperor's putting a Gariſon into that Town, have reinforced the Gariſons of Landau and Fort Louis; They have drawn out moſt of the Forces which were in Alſace to ſend them to Italy, and they are making new Levies, but find Men extreamly ſcarce, tho they make uſe of all kind of Means to get them. They write from Ratisbonne, that the Elector of Cologne's Miniſter at the Imperial Diet has complained of the Mandates lately iſſued againſt him by the Emperor; But he was anſwered by the Deputies of the Princes to whom he made this Complaint, That the Members of the Empire could not be but extreamly ſurpriſed at the News of the Elector of Cologne's having not only entred into a cloſe Alliance with the French King, but received likewiſe the French Forces under the pretended Name of Troops of the Circle of Burgundy into the Territories of the Empire, and that therefore the ſaid Elector muſt expect that all ſuch Meaſures and Methods ſhould be taken, as may be neceſſary to oblige him to quit theſe Engagements, which are ſo prejudicial and dangerous to the whole Empire.

Cologne, Febr. 21. N. S. The Elector of Cologne has ſent ſeveral Expreſſes from Bon to the Emperor, to the Elector of Bavaria his Brother, and to his Miniſter at the Imperial Diet, on the occaſion of the Imperial Mandates and Avocatoria lately iſſued againſt him. The French continue to fortify Bon, and to build a Fort on the Rhine over-againſt it. 'Tis ſaid, the Elector is to have the chief Command of the French Forces between the Lower Rhine and the Maeſe. The Dutch, the Pruſſian, and the Palatine Forces, are in motion, with a Deſign as is ſaid to oblige the French to retire out of the Territories of Cologne and Liege; upon which they have reinforced the Gariſon of Nays, and are making Preparations at Keyſerſwaert for the Defence of that Town. They ſtop all the Boats upon the Rhine which paſs by this laſt Place and Bon, and ſearch them very narrowly, in order to ſeize all thoſe in which are found any Arms or Ammunition. The Inhabitants of this Archbiſhoprick make great Complaints againſt the French Soldiers quartered upon them, who not being regularly paid, their Officers ſuffer them to live at Diſcretion, and to commit great Diſorders.

There are Two Poſts wanting from France, and One from Holland.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy having received a Letter dated the 20*th Inſtant, and ſigned* W. K. intimating, That he can diſcover ſome Irregularities and Imbezelments committed by one who does Day-work in Deptford and Woolwich Yards; Theſe are to give Notice, That if the Author of the ſaid Letter ſhall think fit to attend the Navy Board, and make any Diſcoveries to His Majeſty's Advantage, he ſhall have all fitting Encouragement for the ſame.
